HECB to meet in Seattle to discuss variety of issues

OLYMPIA — The Washington Higher Education Coordinating Board (HECB) will meet at South Seattle Community College Feb. 6 for its regularly scheduled meeting.

The board will hear updates on legislative issues, teacher certification, a progress report on transfer and articulation issues, and a report on the Running Start program. The board will take action on two proposals for new degrees, a proposed rules change for the Washington Scholars Program, and a report to the Legislature on the Future Teachers Conditional Scholarship program.

The meeting will begin at 10 a.m. in Jerry Brockey Student Center Room A at South Seattle Community College. Members will tour the campus at 1 p.m., immediately following a lunch break. No official business will be conducted during the tour and lunch.

The public is invited to attend. Board materials are available for review via the HECB Web site: <http://www.hecb.wa.gov/intro/packets/FebMtg02.pdf>.
